

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Enrollment Report

September 27, 2023

This year's total enrollment for Fall 2023 is 51,316 students. This fall we welcomed 10,917 new undergraduates (entering class and transfers). When added to our returning students, for a total of 40,483, it is our largest number of undergraduates to date. This includes 10,285 students of color. At 26.9% of the domestic class, it is also the most diverse undergraduate body to date.

Total enrollment includes international students from 132 countries, domestic students from all 50 states, and Michigan students from all 83 counties. Students of color make up 27.2% of the domestic class, making it MSU's most diverse student body.

New Undergraduates

- MSU received 58,879 applications for the entering class, exceeding last year's 55,525 by 6.0 percent.
- First time Honors College enrollment is 624 students, comprising 6.7 percent of the entering class.
- Domestic students from outside of Michigan total 1,748 and make up 18.7 percent of the entering class.
- New transfers total 1,546 students.
- Total entering class and new transfer enrollment, inclusive of summer admits, is 10,917 students, 78.0 percent of which are from Michigan.

Undergraduate and Graduate Students

- Total undergraduate enrollment is 40,483 students, up from 39,201 last year.
- Women make up 51.4 percent of the total undergraduate enrollment.
- There are 1,844 new degree-seeking graduate students at the master's and doctoral levels.
- New graduate professional enrollment totals 802 students.
- Total graduate enrollment, including graduate professional students, is 10,833 students.

University

- Total university enrollment for students of color is 12,728 students and accounts for 27.2 percent of the domestic student total. This is MSU's most diverse student body to date.
- The enrollment mix between undergraduate, graduate, and graduate professional students is 78.9 percent, 15.2 percent, and 5.9 percent, respectively.
- The Broad College of Business and the colleges of Social Science, Engineering and Natural Science have the largest enrollments among MSU colleges and collectively account for 54.8 percent of the total enrollment.
